LGBTQ Resources and Special Events Across NY State

New York State is home to the Stonewall Inn, Fire Island, and many other iconic monuments and locations central to LGBTQ culture. New York has numerous LGBTQ-friendly destinations throughout the state, from the funky neighborhoods of Buffalo (including Ani DiFranco's Babeville), Cherry Grove and the Pines on Fire Island, and the sculptures of Storm King. There's also hiking in the Adirondacks, sipping wine in the Finger Lakes, and riding the country's highest and longest zip line in the Catskills!

Reunification Month

When out-of-home care becomes necessary, family reunification is often the ultimate goal. In this issue, Children's Bureau Express features a message from Associate Commissioner Aysha Schomburg about our country's history of separating families and how this year's National Reunification Month is a good time to recognize how far the child welfare system has come in keeping families together. She also speaks to the work that has yet to be done to ensure families stay together.

Training Youth Leaders

The GSA Clubs build power for a growing movement of LGBTQ+ youth of color and they actively support youth through training in leadership, organizing, and advocacy for racial and gender justice. They empower trans and queer youth to educate schools and communities, organize in coalition with other youth across identity lines, and advocate for just policies that protect all LGBTQ+ youth from harassment and violence.
